Helpless Victims of Strikers' Cruelty at Turkey Run Are Taken to Place of Safety.

BEDDALL'S ALLEGED ASSAILANTS IN JAIL

Two Lithuanians Accused of Killing the Shenandoah Merchant Committed Without Bail—Police Officials Are Ferreting Out the Participants in the Riots, but Experience Much Difficulty in Gaining Information.

By Exclusive Wire from The Associated Press.
Shenandoah, Aug. 8.—A platoon of the Governor's Troop of cavalry went to Turkey Run Hill today on an errand of mercy and rescued a small family from the violence of the neighbors. There had been petty acts of violence from that territory nearly every day for a week. Today Brigadier General Gobin received a pathetic letter from the wife of a non-union workman who is employed in the Gilbert colliery of the Reading company, in which she tells of the treatment accorded her by strikers in that vicinity. Among other things, she said rocks had been thrown through the windows at night, one of them nearly striking her sleeping child; the house damaged, and while she was outdoors one night a bullet was fired at her. She also said that crowds gathered around the house, hooted and jeered at her and the children and hung crapes on the door. Her husband, she concluded, was bested in the fight in the mines in order to earn money to keep them from starving and as he could not leave his work, she asked the commanding officer of the troops here to protect her. Turkey Run Hill has no police protection and General Gobin decided to help the woman. He learned that she was not in the best of health and it was decided that she had better be taken from the place to the Pottsville hospital. To carry this out, the general ordered a platoon of cavalry to make a demonstration in that section, and, while there, to escort the woman and children to the railroad station. This was done. The troops rode all over the territory and found that the population, which is made up of many foreigners, was not in the best frame of mind.

The soldiers were hooted and jeered and called uncomplimentary names. Only one stone was thrown at the horsemen and this was done by some one in a crowd on a high ridge, out of reach of the soldiers. The cavalry men stopped their horses and the crowd scattered instantly.

Held for Beddall's Death.
The two Lithuanians who were yesterday held responsible for the death of Joseph Beddall in the riots of last week, were today committed without bail to the county jail at Pottsville, on the charge of murder. Another Lithuanian, charged with rioting, was released on $2,000 bail. It is understood that a large number of arrests will be made and more charges of murder will be brought. The police officials are having much difficulty in ferreting out the participants in the riots. The foreigners are standing together and are not volunteering any information. It was feared that the attempt would be made to rescue the two Lithuanians held for murder and the other charged with rioting from the little lockup early this morning. In consequence, a company of soldiers on guard duty, close at hand, kept in readiness to march. Extra guards are on duty at the borough building, in which the men are confined.

There was little of interest in the camp of the troops today. The region remains very quiet and there was nothing for the soldiers to do but go through the routine of the camp. Brigadier General J. W. Schall, of the First Brigade, accompanied by General Weaver, of his staff, came here from Philadelphia today and paid a visit to brigade headquarters. He left for Philadelphia this evening. General Gobin said General Schall was here merely on a social visit and that the question of calling out additional troops was not discussed.

Washery Resumes Operations.

Pottsville, Aug. 8.—The Philadelphia and Reading Coal and Iron company today began operations at the Anchor washery, in the Heckersville valley. Non-union men were employed, having been taken to the workings by a special train, under an armed guard. The men will sleep on the train tonight, protected by the deputies.

MR. MITCHELL SATISFIED.

Operators Report That Increased Number of Miners Are Applying.

By Exclusive Wire from The Associated Press.
Wilkes-Barre, Aug. 8.—President Mitchell, in an interview this evening, said he was satisfied with the situation in the hard coal region. Reports from the district officers of the United Mine Workers show that the misunderstanding which prevailed a few weeks ago over the distribution of the relief fund has now disappeared and the strikers are more confident than ever that they are going to win. Mr. Mitchell was also of the opinion that the anthracite miners must be paid in proportion to amount paid men in other branches of industry, and unless this is done many of the miners who have a very hard and toilsome life will leave the hard coal region to go to the luminous fields where they can return.

The superintendent of the Delaware, Lackawanna and Western company's collieries in the Wyoming district report that an increased number of men are applying daily for work.

BLOWN TO ATOMS.

Two Men and a Team of Horses Are Annihilated by Glycerine Near Bradford.

By Exclusive Wire from The Associated Press.
Bradford, Pa., Aug. 8.—A terrific explosion today at Irvin's mills, seven miles from this place, shook the earth over a wide radius and annihilated two human beings. A team of horses, a wagon and forty 10-quart cans of glycerine went up also in the flash of fire, and clouds of smoke that accompanied the explosion. Joseph Gilson, aged 44 years, a resident of Bradford, and Oscar Bergvall, aged 17 years, an office boy employed by the Pennsylvania Trench company, were the human victims. Gilson and Bergvall were taking a load of glycerine from the company's magazine in Rice Brook to Olean.

It is supposed a wheel of the wagon dropped into a rut of the road, causing the jar which brought on the explosion. Nothing was left of the outfit but a small portion of one horse.

UNFINISHED RACES OF GRAND CIRCUIT

Two Events Run Off Before a Free Admission Crowd at Buffalo.

By Exclusive Wire from The Associated Press.
Buffalo, Aug. 8.—The two unfinished races of the grand circuit meeting at Fort Erie were run off today before a free admission crowd composed mostly of bettors whose wagers were hanging in the balance. The fact that Chain Shot had beaten the Monk in the first heat Thursday, in the 2:08 trot, did not scare the followers of Geers, and the Monk ruled about 25 to 17 against the field. Geers had little difficulty in getting the better of those wagers hanging in the balance. ### MUST GUARD FORESTS.

Campers Locating Upon State Grounds Are Required to Protect Fires.

By Exclusive Wire from The Associated Press.
Harrisburg, Aug. 8.—The Pennsylvania state forestry commission has directed its forest officers to afford proper facilities to parties camping on the state forest reservations and to permit the campers to move their camp from point to point on these lands without hindrance.

The commission has also issued orders to its employees to remove immediately all parties who take deer-running dogs on the grounds, to kill the dogs when found in pursuit of deer and to remove all parties from the state lands who do not protect their camp or other fires.

MORE RELIGIOUS SCHOOLS CLOSED

Center of Interest Now Is the Little Localities of Saint Meen Le Folgoet and Ploudaniel.

By Exclusive Wire from The Associated Press.
Brest, France, Aug. 8.—Several more religious schools in Finistere were closed this morning, despite protests by the inhabitants, who were held back by gendarmes. The chief center of interest now is the little localities of Saint Meen, Le Folgoet and Ploudaniel, north of Brest, where all the traditional fanaticism of the Bretons is displayed. Eviction of the sisters was expected there this morning and bodies of men and women guarded the schools throughout the night. The whole country, so-called, is still religious, was about 3 o'clock in the morning and barricades of carts attached by heavy chains were erected in the roads leading to the schools at Ploudaniel. A barricade of carts, covered with thorns and brambles, defended the entrance to the school at Saint Meen.

DUN'S REVIEW OF TRADE.

Bright Prospects in the Agricultural Sections Outweigh Adverse Influence of Labor Disputes.

By Exclusive Wire from The Associated Press.
New York, Aug. 8.—R. G. Dun & Co.'s Weekly Review of Trade, tomorrow, will say:
Bright prospects in agricultural sections far outweigh the adverse influence of labor disputes which are still retarding trade and manufacture. Confidence in the future is unshaken, dealers everywhere preparing for a heavy fall trade, while contracts for distant deliveries run further into next year than is usual at this date. Activity has been noteworthy in lumber regions. Aside from the fuel and security which are still required, the iron and steel situation continues propitious. Coke ovens in the Connellsville region maintain a weekly output of about 25,000 tons and ready buyers at full prices. Much more could be used to advantage. Conditions are indicated by the number of orders going out of the country, which domestic producers cannot undertake. Thus far the imports have had little influence on domestic prices, except as to billets; which are freely offered below the home market level. New contracts for iron were placed this week covering deliveries in the second quarter of 1903 and structural material is desired for bridges and buildings. Footwear factories are well supplied with fall orders and spring samples and the tone of the market is firmer, although actual advances have been few.

Dry goods buyers are coming into the market to a considerable extent, yet without placing orders of any size. Splendid growing and harvesting conditions have prevailed in most sections of the country; especially where the larger and more important crops are raised. It is now almost certain that the agricultural returns will be far above the average as to quantity while the low stocks at the opening of the season are calculated to sustain prices and there is little prospect of the low quotations of preceding years. The outlook for production. Failures for the week number 196 in the United States against 173 last year and 14 in Canada against 31 last year.

Sunday Ball Approved.

By Exclusive Wire from The Associated Press.
Memphis, Aug. 8.—The Shelby county grand jury has ignored all the bills of indictment presented against the Memphis baseball club and visiting players for playing ball on Sunday. As this grand jury holds until after the close of the league season there will probably be no more interference with Sunday ball here.

PLANS FOR CORONATION

Changes in the Impressive Services to Be Held in Westminster Abbey.

THE PROGRAMME AS ANNOUNCED YESTERDAY

Modification of the Offices Are Made to Save the King and the Aged Dean of Westminster Fatigue—Recognition to Be Performed Once Instead of Four Times.

By Exclusive Wire from The Associated Press.

London, Aug. 8.—A number of important changes in the coronation programme were announced today. The recognition, in which the king is presented to the people by the Archbishop of Canterbury as the "undoubted king of the realm," will be performed but once instead of four times. The litany which was to have followed the recognition will not be said, the sermon will be omitted and the Te Deum, which was placed at the order of service after the reading of the Bible, will not be given at that time, but will be sung during the recess, at the close of the coronation office, when the king visits St. Edward's chapel.

Owing to the age of the Very Rev. George Granville Bradley, the dean of Westminster, who is 81 years old, the king has relieved him of the duty of placing the regalia on the altar, and this service will be performed by Canon Duckworth, but the dean will present the crown to the archbishop for the act of coronation and will present the sword to the king. Canon Duckworth will lay the amulet and spoon on the altar, will place upon his majesty the colobium sindonis and the supercinctum, or the close plait of cloth of gold, will deliver the spurs to the lord great chamberlain, will take the king's sword from the altar and hand it to his majesty, will put upon the king the armilla and imperial mantle, will take the orb with the cross from the altar and deliver it to the archbishop for presentation to the king and will receive the orb from the king.

The queen, looking particularly well, presided this afternoon at a meeting of the Soldiers' and Sailors' Families' association in Queen's hall. Announcement was made that Lucas Tooth, the Australian, who presented the sword to the king for the coronation, had given the queen a similar sum, which her majesty desired to devote to the work of the association, and that the queen's appeal in January had brought in $1,500,000, making the total of public subscriptions to the association during and since the war $8,500,000. The queen had gathered on the route to and from the palace and warmly cheered the queen.

An Every Day Aspect.

With the coronation less than a day distant London maintains its every day aspect. It is true that the short route to the coronation is decorated at some points more brilliantly than before, but the route is a mere speck in the great area of the city and even on the streets to be traversed by the procession there were few sightseers. The main thoroughfares, miles of which were gay with flags and bunting, were made up of a striped canopy of life guards, and places, which were allowed to remain in place. Westminster is the center of what little activity London displays. The chief stands in the vicinity of St. Margaret's have been re-decorated and floodlights are being used to illuminate the streets, supporting trophies and flags joined by streamers of gay bunting. The same general scheme prevails in Pall Mall. Many club stands have disappeared. The private stands, covered in crimson, are doing a fair business, prices for seating running from 10 to 50 with the cheaper classes sold out. Westminster Abbey today received the precious regalia, which was taken under a strong guard from the tower, and also a wealth of gold and silver plate from Buckingham Palace, all of which were guarded today by a detachment of life guards. Despite the announced departure of all the special embassies the government has been somewhat embarrassed to find a few of these guests still on hand. While Witell Reid, the special American ambassador announced the departure of the friars to an American syndicate and that the statement that such a sale has been made is officially discredited. The Dominicans transferred eight of their estates in the island of Luzon to the Philippine Sugar Estates Development company, in which certain Americans are interested, in January, 1901.

NOTHING KNOWN OF FRIARS' LAND SALE

Manila in Ignorance of the Reported Transfer of Real Estate to an American Syndicate.

By Exclusive Wire from The Associated Press.
Manila, Aug. 8.—Nothing is known here of the reported sale of the lands of the friars to an American syndicate and that the statement that such a sale has been made is officially discredited. The Dominicans transferred eight of their estates in the island of Luzon to the Philippine Sugar Estates Development company, in which certain Americans are interested, in January, 1901.

Some property belonging to other religious orders here is nominally outside of the control of the church, and judicial action will probably be necessary before the government purchases the friar lands. That there have been recent transfers of friar property is doubtful. The status of the holdings of the friars is not believed to have changed since Governor Taft left the Philippines for Washington last December.

THE DEATH ROLL.

By Exclusive Wire from The Associated Press.
Brussels, Aug. 8.—The Petit Bleu announces the sudden death of the Boer General Lucas Meyer of heart disease. General Meyer was attacked several times with this illness during the war in South Africa.

Gloster, Mass., Aug. 8.—John H. Twachtman, of New York, whose fame as a landscape painter, embraces both America and Europe, died at the Addison Gilbert hospital here today aged 65 years. Mr. Twachtman for several days had been receiving treatment for a complication of diseases. He had received many honors as an artist.

Wales and the second troop of the royal horse guards.

The king's procession will leave Buckingham Palace at 11 o'clock, escorted by the royal horse guards, the king's household and twelve watermen. The carriages will then follow. The carriages are followed by the personal staff to the commander in chief, Lord Roberts, mounted; and aides de camp to the king, consisting of ten colonels of volunteer regiments, seven colonels of yeomanry regiments, and nine colonels of militia regiments. Nearly all the above aides are members of the peerage.

Then comes the state coach, conveying their majesties, attended by the Duke of Connaught and Prince Arthur of Connaught, followed by the royal standard, and an escort.

After these come the Duke of Ducleuch, captain general of the royal company of archers; Early Waldegrave, captain of the yeomen of the guard, and the Duke of Portland, master of the household, followed by the equerries-in-waiting and the royal grooms. The rear division consists of an escort of the royal horse guards, and the reserves squadron of the second life guards.

THE ASSAULT ON MR. KNOX

The Attorney General Tells of the Atlantic City Trouble.

By Exclusive Wire from The Associated Press.

Oyster Bay, N. Y., Aug. 8.—Attorney General Knox today confirmed the report that he had had a personal difficulty with a party of men in Atlantic City last Wednesday night. "It was one of those disagreeable incidents," said he, "that sometimes occur in a restaurant or other public places. Accompanied by Mrs. Knox, my daughter and two or three friends, including Harry A. Hays, of Pittsburgh, I was dining in the restaurant of the Garden hotel. A party of men, none of whom I knew, seated themselves at an adjoining table. Their conduct was unseemly and boisterous. They talked loudly, and their conversation was without any regard to the propriety of the subject, and upon me being insulting, to put it very mildly.

"In the circumstance, accompanied as I was by the ladies, I could not resent their actions or their words at that time. They evidently were seeking trouble, so, without attracting any more attention than possible, I got my party out of the restaurant.

"Then I returned," continued Mr. Knox with a smile, "to see if the men really were looking for me. I thought they were, for scarcely had I approached them when they sprang up. One of them aimed a blow at my stomach, but it failed to reach me. I have no idea who he was. What happened to him I am not prepared to say. Those things occur very quickly. I am quite satisfied, however, that he does not feel as well today as he did yesterday. You will note that I am looking first rate."

"You do not know who were in the party of your assailants?" the attorney general was asked.
"Not positively. I understand that John T. Schoen, of Philadelphia, and one of the Crapps, also of Philadelphia, were in the party, but even that I am not at all positive.
"What actuated them I do not know. A newspaper of today said that it has something to do with my attitude on the trust question, but that seems to me entirely unlikely. As they sat at the table in the restaurant they made no reference to the action which, as attorney general, I have taken against certain so-called trusts. Their remarks were personal to me and to my family, and were of such a nature that I could do nothing but resent them.
"I understand that I left the restaurant at the conclusion of the difficulty, the waiters suppressed the crowd with some energy."

The attorney general evidently was not in the least injured by his assailants, and as he chatted about the trouble did not seem to regard it very seriously.

Muscatine, Iowa, Aug. 8.—William J. Bryan settled for all time the rumors that he will be a candidate for president in 1904, in an interview today, while on the way to Danville, Ill., where he spoke tonight. Colonel Bryan, when shown yesterday's reports that he might again be a candidate, was much nettled and expressed himself in no uncertain manner. He said he wanted the matter settled right now, so there could be no further question. The Mason City interview, he said, was unreliable.

"I will not be a candidate for president in 1904," said Mr. Bryan. "While I would not promise never to be a candidate again under any circumstances, I have no plans looking to the future nomination for the office. I am perfectly content to do my work as a private citizen and enjoy my editorial work. I shall continue to advocate, with tongue and pen, reforms which I believe to be necessary."

Talking of the Republican platform of Iowa, Mr. Bryan said:

"I am glad to notice an improvement in Iowa politics. By the action of the recent state convention I am glad to note that they realize and recognize that behind the tariff lurks the great monopolies and trusts of this country. Nine years ago I introduced a bill into congress exactly on those same lines, taking the tariff off trust-made goods, and although the endorsement comes a little late, I am glad to note that, even after nine years, the Republicans of Iowa have come to my way of thinking. But the action of the Republican party will be of little effect in national politics, for the simple reason that those who control legislation are those who favor the trusts and monopolies of the country. People who furnish funds for the Republican party are the ones who name your attorney general and those having authority. They do not want your money out here. They want your votes. So I say that the plank in the Republican platform is merely educational, that is all."

Carr went to his friend's assistance and was dragged into the scalding water. With marvelous heroism, he held Garforth's head above the water until both were rescued.
